I just wanna thank you for providing a home for me because if I wasn't in here I wouldn't have get to know you or any of the girls.
So I remember when I first came here there was 3 times that I tried running away because I had that mentality where I didn't care whether I got into trouble but now that I am still here I just wanna thank all staff & all safety for keeping us safe, because there was times where I did see a lot of struggle within myself & the girls but we helped each other lift each other up like if we are a real family and now I know that I have a family here when I leave.
I was very naive when I first came here but I grew a lot of comfort into this facility.
& when I leave I will remember each and one of you guys cause you saw the best in me when I didn't see the best in me when I was vulnerable and feeling like I was the only one going through this and I'm not the only one going through a hard time trying to stabilize myself & trying to fit in when instead I should be standing out. you guys bring the best in me & I believe that one day I'm going to see you all in the future & I will help out when someone cries in need because that's what a family does, they stay through thick & thin and we never give up not even if our lives depend on it. not every day I struggle a piece of my heart to wake up but when I see you all I see potential in myself & in everyone else in this room. when I thought I was standing by myself & now were standing by hand and hand cheering on, on everything we have and life isn't about what you have in your room or what you wear it is what you can give with all your heart & in mind & soul.

When I see the girls; I see sisters from another mistress but they mean everything to me when I speak to them, sing to them, Dance with them, and many more.

So when I leave I want you all to remember me for who I was & who I am today The Lajarra sisters forever & always.

♫ we are all in this together when we stand hand of hand & make our dreams come true, everybody now together, forever come on & have some fun ♪
